DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the braided steel wires must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

Page 3, line 10: "cab" should read --can---

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's Specification in view of Benk (3141372), and further in view of Rexroad et al (6000498).

Applicant's specification teaches as well known a cable structure (Figure 2) for a weight lifting exerciser comprising a core comprising a braid of steel wires (4) and a protective outer wrap (3). While Applicant's specification teaches the cable, including a protective barrier, he fails to specifically teach a second protective nylon wrap in addition to a first protective nylon wrap, which Benk teaches (Column 2, lines 44-57 teaches structure; line 60 teaches material). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize a second wrap of nylon, so as to better protect the core. Benk teaches us that plural nylon wraps is well known in the cable art, providing additional protection against abrasion to the inner core by providing numerous layers to wear through, thus extending the life of the overall cable structure. The ordinarily skilled artisan would have understood this benefit, and would have known to utilize two nylon wraps in the cable structure of Benk.

The cable of Applicant's specification further essentially teaches the invention as described above, but fails to teach differing colors for the cable layers, allowing for damage to be visually obvious. Rexroad teaches that utilizing different colors between layers is well known in the art for allowing for visual damage inspection (Column 6 line 61 - Column 7 line 5). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to utilize the differing colors as taught by Rexroad, so as to provide the cable of Applicant's Specification with a simple indicating mechanism for the ordinarily skilled artisan to use, allowing for easier cable wear determination.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
